Facilitating Transformation through Values: Teams™

Overview, Outcomes & Pricing

Facilitating Transformation through Values™

Setting a Global Standard

The Facilitating Transformation through Values™ \(FTV\) Facilitator Accreditation program has been developed over a 10 year period as part of our work for a leading global management consultancy in training their own and clients' transformational facilitators.

With a selection process inviting experienced facilitators, the Work is based on the Barrett 7 Levels of Consciousness and Kegan's Adult Stages of Development frameworks. It focuses on values and levels of consciousness as the key to transformation of leaders. The aim is to assist leaders in becoming truly authentic and courageous, leading from their own values, sense of purpose and meaning.

The program is focused on expanding one's level of consciousness so that a leader or facilitator can unlock their challenges from a more expansive, systemic perspective.

The FTV is formally endorsed by The Barrett Values Centre as recommended to their global network of Barrett Culture Transformation practitioners.

Our "Why"

- Our purpose in developing the FTV is to:
- Make available to the world a way to work with values that is deeply transformational and sustainable
- To empower facilitators and coaches with a methodology where they can use values more powerfully with clients
- To create a global community of transformational facilitators of the highest standard
- Create a "Collaboration Movement" where we can work together with consciousness-raising organisations, such as Barrett Values Centre, to enable greater impact in business and society

FTV Teams™

Purpose & Outcomes

Purpose:

The purpose of FTV: Teams™ is to provide facilitators with a toolkit of multiple sessions to take a client through a Team Transformation Journey, transforming their collective leadership. What is transformational about this, is the focus of enabling teams to align and execute from a higher level of consciousness, aligned with their organisation's (and their own) values and purpose. The team becomes inspiring and creates breakthrough outcomes for the business.

As participants will have already been accredited in FTV Self™, they already hold the deep transformational essence of this work.

Outcomes:

- Receive a 9-month Team Journey collection of session plans for 4 key interventions: Team Alignment workshop, Unlocking Adaptive Challenge workshop, Team Observation and Group Coaching.
- Help you engage new clients and design a Team Journey intervention for your client
- Have your own experience of the Team Alignment workshop before you facilitate for a client. Be in the dance AND on the balcony of what you will facilitate.
- Experience your next level of transformation through the U Process with more focus on the right side of the U, manifesting your Purpose through the work you do with clients.
- Greater Presence and ability to “hold space” as a team facilitator.
- Practical experience of delivering the Team Alignment workshop for your own client.

We are not human beings
having a spiritual experience,
We are spiritual beings having a human experience.

Content & Pricing

In this Forum we take the group through a real Team Alignment workshop through the U. We are "in it" and also learning how to facilitate the "Team Transformation Alignment" modules. We focus on three capabilities:

- Engaging and working with your client in a way that sets you up for success
- Holding the space for emergence through the U Process
- Transforming your own Presence as a facilitator and coach

The content covers:

- Sensing your system and what wants to emerge
- Challenging your own assumptions and receiving feedback
- Integrating the FTV Self™ modules for transforming mindsets
- Creating a shared purpose and vision
- Emerging breakthrough possibilities and prototypes
- Purposeful action in re-engaging stakeholders and personal commitments

The key to all of these capabilities is being to hold the "essence" of transformation which is what we learned in the FTV Self™ Forum.
